

HB's On The Gulf Unveils New Menu

NAPLES, Fla. (February 2006) - HB's on the Gulf, the popular beachfront restaurant located at The Naples Beach Hotel & Golf Club, has just unveiled a new dinner menu, according to Food & Beverage Director Jim Anderson.

With an emphasis on fresh regional seafood, the new menu features nine new entrées, four new appetizers, and two new salads. Patron favorites the Baked Yellow Tail Snapper and HB's delicious Crab Cakes, remain on the menu.

New entrées include: Grilled Atlantic Salmon, served with grapefruit bernaise; Grilled Mako Shark, which is topped with sautéed bay scallops and herbed-garlic butter; Shrimp Asiago, served over red pepper linguine with Asiago cheese and artichoke hearts; Vegetable Ravioli Duet of fire-roasted vegetables and mushroom raviolis with a Chardonnay cream sauce; Chicken Francaise served with Valencia orange sauce; Pesto Grilled Lamb Chops; Herbed Baked Grouper with citrus beurre blanc; and Parsnip Roasted Duckling, complete with kumquat glaze and jus lie. Entrées start at $18.

Among the new appetizers now available are Grilled Asparagus and Shitake Strudel, Fried Calamari and Scallops, Fried Oysters, and Spicy Jamaican Barbecued Shrimp.

HB's has also added a unique Tai Caesar Salad, which features crisp Romaine, chili grilled shrimp, grilled scallions and shaved parmesan. It is served with green curry Caesar dressing and Tahini crostini.

Known for its enchanting location overlooking the Gulf of Mexico and for its spectacular sunset views, HB's on the Gulf is Naples' only beachfront restaurant. A recent recipient of Wine Spectator magazine's prestigious "Award of Excellence," the restaurant features an extensive wine list, with a broad selection of fine wines from which to choose. The restaurant's wine list features more than 120 selections, including a collection of 1997 vintage California Cabernets and a 4-year vertical of Penfolds Grange.

A consistent recipient of dining awards, HB's on the Gulf also was recently named one of the best restaurants for "Waterfront Dining" by Gulfshore Life magazine. HB's on the Gulf is open daily for lunch and dinner, serving indoors, on the patio, or at water's edge. For reservations or gift certificate information, call HB's On The Gulf at (239) 435-4347.
