

Naples Beach Hotel & Golf Club Offering 10-Carat Meeting Package To Celebrate Its 60th

NAPLES, Fla. (January 2006) – What do George W. Bush, Bill Clinton, Sylvester Stallone, Cher, Steven Spielberg, Dolly Parton and The Naples Beach Hotel & Golf Club have in common? They're all turning 60 in 2006. In celebration of its 60th anniversary, which is the diamond anniversary, the popular beachfront resort is offering a "10-Carat Meeting Package" for 2006 meetings booked by April 30, 2006, according to General Manager Jim Gunderson. The 318-room resort features 34,000 square feet of meeting space, and is Naples' only beachfront resort with an on-site championship golf course, world-class spa, and an award-winning tennis center.

Planners who book their meeting by April 30, 2006 with a minimum of 15 rooms per night for two nights, can choose three from a list of ten great incentives with the "10-Carat Meeting Package." Options include: a complimentary hour-long welcome reception with full bar and hors d'oeuvres; complimentary access to the resort's world-class spa and health club for your hotel guests; one team-building activity for your group from a list of options; one complimentary room for every 25 paid rooms; complimentary group golf clinic; complimentary group tennis lesson; $10 credit per room per stay, which can be used in any resort retail or food & beverage outlet; one suite upgrade per night for every 25 rooms per night; one VIP welcome amenity for every 50 rooms occupied; and free guest room Internet access for your entire group.

Planners who book a meeting where more than 50% of your room nights fall during the resort's "Value Dates" can choose six of the incentives.
